

Diane Minshall UBC Memorial Award

Application Form

Note to Applicants: You must work at the University of British Columbia and be involved in the care and study of research animals to be considered for this award.

The award is to be used specifically for the support of travel and registration for a meeting, conference, workshop or training opportunity expressly pertaining to the welfare and improvement of conditions for research and laboratory animals.

The maximum award to any one applicant is $500.00.

Please carefully read the Terms of Reference of the Award prior to submitting your application www.awfc.ca/english/works/dianeminshall.htm.

Process

Applications must be received no later than March 31 of the calendar year at the Office of the Animal Care Committee of the University of British Columbia:

Lynn Macdonald Lynn.Macdonald@ors.ubc.ca
Manager, Animal Care Committee
102-6190 Agronomy Road
University of British Columbia
Vancouver, BC
Canada V6T 1Z3

Applications will be adjudicated by the UBC Committee on Animal Care www.ors.ubc.ca/contents/animal-care which will make a recommendation on the disposition of the award to the Trustees of the Animal Welfare Foundation of Canada. The names of applicants will not be known to the Committee on Animal Care. Successful applicant(s) will be notified in writing by the AWFC.

Successful applicants must provide proof of conference attendance and prepare and submit a one page report to the AWFC describing how they benefited from participation within one month after the conference. They also give permission to the AWFC to publish their reports on the AWFC website and in any print media.

Unsuccessful applicants are encouraged to re-apply in the next calendar year.
